

Primary Buyers & Mill Service Agents Committee
Adopted at the 101th Annual Convention
June 18, 2025

---

The Primary Buyers & Mill Service Agents Committee recommends that ACSA:

1. Encourage merchants to use primary buyers and mill service agents who are members of ACSA's federated associations and to actively request primary buyers and mill service agents who are non-ACSA members to join one of the federated associations, acknowledging the updated membership structure and campaign for growth in this membership category;
2. Urge Primary Buyers and Mill Service Agents to participate in as many ACSA activities as possible in order to increase awareness of the advantages our sector provides to improve marketing efficiency;
3. Strongly support marketing development of Merchant members by providing assistance, education, and other efforts to promote the movement of cotton from the field to the end user;
4. Recognize the principles of sanctity of contracts and encourage compliance with contractual obligations and adherence to arbitration clauses;
5. Urge the Committee on Contract Sanctity at Origination in the Southeast to continue efforts to educate and raise awareness concerning local contract sanctity matters, specifically working in conjunction with the Atlantic Cotton Association and the Southern Cotton Ginners Association; and,
6. Encourage Southern Cotton Association, Texas Cotton Association, and Western Cotton Shippers Association to establish working groups to promote contract sanctity in their respective regions, in collaboration with regional producer / ginner associations.
